

Two of my local Maryland tv channels have become the political mouthpiece of the Republican party and I believe they are therefore not serving the interests of the community. I do not believe they their broadcasting licenses should be renewed. These channels are WBFF Channel 45 and WNUV Channel 54, both in Baltimore and both owned by Sinclair Broadcasting, a media owner that blatantly steps over the line and broadcasts one-sided propaganda as though it were "news."